

The Benefits of Joining ODACA

Are you considering applying for membership in the Original Doll Artist Council of America?

Why should you join?

Here are some of the many benefits...

- ODACA is a respected organization of doll artists known for their artistry and the high quality of their work.
- Members are friendly and supportive of one another. If you have a question, need help or a resource, just call another artist.
- Members provide community through Zoom meetings that offer specific topics such as textile resources and making hats and shoes, as well as sharing new work and just chatting about art and life.
- ODACA Day is a yearly luncheon held at the United Federation of Doll Collectors (UFDC) Convention. Artists have the opportunity to sell their dolls in the ODACA Salesroom on the first day of the convention to thousands of attendees and the public.
- Artists are spotlighted on Facebook with posts of recent work.
- Artist members receive the option of a discounted luncheon on ODACA Day.
- Members receive Expressions, a quarterly newsletter distributed to Artists and Patrons with artist work, accolades, and news.
- Artists have a profile page on the ODACA website, which highlights up to 10 dolls and a includes an artist's narrative.
- Support of the organization and the doll industry through informing collectors as an active member.
- Participate in special articles about ODACA in major doll magazines. In 2024, our artists were highlighted multi-page articles in Dolls magazine and A for Artistic e-magazine.

You receive all of this opportunity for a $50 membership fee per year!

Joining ODACA is a juried process. It's a tiny bit scary, but you'll find that everyone is supportive and helpful. Take a chance on yourself. Download the application and send it in today.

The application deadline is December 1st.
